

Appreciative presence leads to the merging with all life, while reactivity fragments us into the appearance of apparent separation and death.

Those who release their self absorption into undivided awareness become fully alive.

While those who remain tightly focused on self centered concerns remain divided, and are as if already dead.

Gotama Buddha: Dhammpada AWARENESS

